

European Team Contest 2019

Requirement Each Team:

- 3 Team Riders : 1 Youth or Select, 1 Amateur, 1 Open
- All riders can fill out the team entry form if they are interested in taking part and if they already have a team include these names or indicate that they wish to be assigned to a team.
- There will be a meeting after the paid warm up on Thursday night for Teams to gather, the Professional Horsemen attending the EC will then randomly draw for their team to support with their points as well. If insufficient number of Professional Horsemen for 1 per team then they may be assigned to more than one team
- When full teams are decided they must then nominate which classes they are going to collect points in and name the horse they will be riding in that class (if they did not already do this on the team entry form).

Class rules:

- Each Professional Horseman must nominate 1 class
- Each Team Rider must nominate 2 classes
- More than 1 Team Rider may show in the same class
- From the 7 classes there must be minimum -
 - 1 Halter Class (open/amateur/youth – not showmanship)
 - 1 L1 Class (open/amateur/youth)
 - 1 Youth or Select Performance Class (inc showmanship)
 - 1 Amateur Performance Class (inc showmanship)No Finals classes

The Points you collect for your team will be the same system which is used to calculate the finalists. For a first place you will receive 120 points, second place will receive 105 points etc. to add to the team account.

Daily Fun Challenges:

- From Monday to Friday there will be a daily team challenge for fun and bonus points. Tasks will be given each morning at the show office
- Each day there will be the leading team announced as the winning team of the day

Some examples: Monday each team must provide a breakfast item for the Trail course team, Tuesday all team members must wear something yellow all day including in the classes and post a picture on fb page, Wednesday they must find a list of items and take to office, Thursday egg and spoon race while Trail set up, Friday team must take a picture with a European Champion and post on fb page??

Winners:

- Results will be finalised Saturday lunchtime/evening, after all regular AQHA classes are complete.
